TARIFF WAR WITH CANADA PROBABLE

Fayne Measure Is of Great Injustice to That Country.

MANN CALLS FOR RELIEF

Proposes Remedial Legislation or Suggests Reciprocal Treaty.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 27.—Congressman Mann, who was chairman of the special committee on wood pulp and print paper of the last Congress, and who prepared the provisions on these items, as first reported to the House by the Payne tariff bill, but who was overruled by Congress in the final passage of the tariff law, takes the position that the country may well be alarmed at the danger of a tariff war with Canada growing out of the tariff on wood pulp and print paper under the Payne act.

Mr. Mann has prepared, and at the beginning of the forthcoming session of Congress will introduce, several bills and joint resolutions relating to this subject. One of his measures is a joint resolution to postpone the application of the maximum tariff from April 1 next to January 1, 1911. Another of his resolutions provides that the maximum tariff of the United States shall be held not to apply to wood pulp and printing paper imported from Canada.

Mr. Mann has also prepared and will introduce a bill which provides that wood pulp and printing paper shall be admitted free of duty when imported from Canada, being the product thereof, on the condition precedent that Canada or the province in which the wood pulp or printing paper is manufactured shall not forbid or restrict or impose any export duty or export

KEEP PROPERTY VERY ACTIVE

The big real estate firm of Blanton & Purcell, 1110 East Main Street, is keeping property very active. This is due to the splendid organization of this company. Every department is especially strong, whether the resident, business, suburban or farm properties the company had unexcelled facilities for handling, and consequently keep property changing hands steadily and always to the advantage of the investors.

license fee upon printing paper, mechanically ground wood pulp, or wood used in the manufacture of wood pulp. These measures all naturally, when introduced, will be referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Ways and Means, but Mr. Mann may make a fight in the House to have them referred to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, of which he is the new chairman.

In the last Congress, when the Ways and Means Committee was endeavoring to smother the bill introduced by Mann to prevent the importation of smoking opium, he sent a notice to every member of the House that on a certain morning he would move to take that bill from the Ways and Means Committee and refer it to a friendly committee. The result was a passage of arms between Mann and Chairman Payne, of the Ways and Means Committee, on the floor of the House, but Payne was compelled to report favorably Mann's opium bill, and it became a law.

Mr. Mann says that unless some legislation, such as he proposes, be adopted or a reciprocal treaty with Canada agreed to, Canada, smarting under the injustice of the Payne tariff law, is likely to forbid the exportation of pulp wood from Canada to the United States, and thereby not only close up a number of the newspaper mills of the United States, but increase the cost and price of print paper to a point which will inflict tremendous injury, not only upon the newspapers, but upon the book publishers, including especially school books.
